

I do not think it is a good idea to weaken the current law. It is very nice to be able to pick up the phone at dinner time nad know it is not going to be a telemarketer. If I want to buy something I know where to go, I don't need / want to be bothered on the telephone.

Please leave things as they are.